

Mr Lee Xuan Yi
Principal Forensic Examiner, Digital Forensics Branch, CPIB

Mr Lee Xuan Yi is a Principal Forensic Examiner of the Digital Forensic Branch (DFB) of the Corrupt Practices Investigation Bureau (CPIB). He joined the DFB in 2021. As a forensic examiner, he is responsible for uncovering, extracting, and presenting digital evidence to aid CPIB's investigations.

Lee began his career in CPIB as an Investigation Officer with the Investigations Department in 2017. During his investigation stint, he had investigated into both private and public sector cases.