

Mr. Allen Ng
Chief Forensic Accountant, ICAC

Allen is the Chief Forensic Accountant of the Operations Department of the ICAC. He heads the Forensic Accounting Group and provides professional advice and support to frontline investigators in areas of forensic accounting, financial investigation, expert witness support and asset recovery.

He rendered professional assistance in various complex corruption and related financial crime investigations, covering cases of corruption by government officials, unexplained wealth, listed company scandals, corporate and financial statement fraud, asset misappropriation, illicit fund tracing, money laundering, and technical accounting issues. He has also provided expert witness support for criminal proceedings.