IAACA
International Association of Anti-Corruption Authorities

Established in 2006, the International Association of Anti-Corruption Authorities (IAACA) is an independent and non-political anti-corruption organization with the mandate to promote the effective implementation of the United Nations Convention against Corruption (UNCAC) and assist anti-corruption agencies (ACAs) worldwide in the prevention of and fight against corruption. Up to now, 195 ACAs from different countries and regions have joined IAACA as members. Members are categorized under five regional groups with reference to the United Nations Regional Groups of Member States. Regional Coordinators are appointed to deepen communication and collaboration with ACAs within their regions, and arrange tailor-made training activities for them.

President and Secretariat

Mr Danny Woo Ying Ming, Commissioner of the Independent Commission Against Corruption (ICAC), the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China is the current President, and ICAC serves as IAACA Secretariat. Mr Chin Kit CHEUNG, Assistant Director of International Cooperation of the ICAC is the Secretary-General of the Association.

Executive Committee

The current IAACA ExCo consists of the President, Vice-Presidents, Organizational and Honorary Members, Advisers, an Observer and the Secretary-General. IAACA Secretariat assists the ExCo in sustaining IAACA's work programmes, implementing new initiatives and charting a clear way forward for the Association.

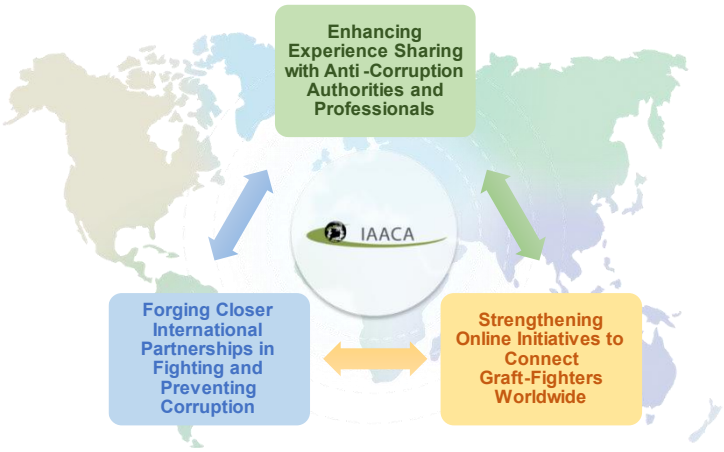
International Association of Anti-Corruption Authorities

Strategic Priorities

IAACA works on its mission through three strategic priorities. Our ultimate aim is to strengthen IAACA's role as the focal point of international anti-corruption collaboration, and to enable the IAACA to take centre stage of the international anti-corruption mission.



Activities

IAACA organizes annual conferences, general meetings and training events in different countries around the world with a view to gathering members, anti-corruption practitioners and experts to explore effective ways to implement UNCAC as well as exchanging expertise and experiences on advancing international cooperation against corruption.

Together We Build a Corruption-free World

IAACA and its members have been dedicating themselves to preventing and combating corruption on international, regional and national platforms, with unwavering commitment to attaining the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goal 16.5 to "substantially reduce corruption and bribery in all their forms" by 2030.
